

Antwerp Design Market

The first edition of the Antwerp Design Market will warmly welcome 120 exhibitors and 10,000 visitors on May 17 and 18, 2025, within the halls of Waagnatie. This is an opportunity to discover this 10,000 square meters space dedicated to a selection of high-quality design items, under the professional expertise of passionate and knowledgeable exhibitors.

Discover a stunning collection of 20th-century design as exhibitors from across Europe—Belgium, the Netherlands, France, and more—showcase a diverse range of furniture, lighting, decor, and tableware. Whether you're seeking a stylish Mid-Century Modern sideboard, a sleek Scandinavian table, a vibrant plastic stool, an Italian style mirror, or a lovely opaline wall lamp, you'll find unique treasures waiting for you. Dive into these styles and trends, waiting to be rediscovered and cherished!

Well-known pieces will be featured alongside those from emerging designers. While some rare items, documented in publisher catalogs and highly sought after by collectors, will be available, there are also more affordable options to choose from.

The Antwerp Design Market offers a wide range of choices to match the diversity of tastes and interiors. From seasoned collectors to beginners, this specialized fair invites the public to immerse themselves in the world of vintage design, all in a laid-back atmosphere characteristic of flea markets.

Be a part of our first edition and discover exceptional finds that will elevate your interior!
